Isra Hussien Eid CV

Software Engineering Student | Aspiring Executive Partner

About

Software Engineering student with strong analytical, organizational, and problem-solving skills. Experienced in structuring workflows, managing priorities, and supporting fast-paced environments through academic and project-based work. Currently applying these skills on Codeforces challenges to enhance problem-solving speed and algorithmic thinking. Eager to grow as a strategic executive partner in a global remote setting and contribute effectively to high-impact operations.

Education

Bachelor in Software Engineering
Bethlehem University
Expected Graduation: 2028
Relevant coursework: Data Structures, Object-Oriented Programming, Operating Systems, Networking

Academic Performance

First Year – First Semester: 3.92 / 4
First Year – Second Semester: 3.44 / 4
Second Year – First Semester: 3.63/4

Experienc

(Academic Project - Software Engineering, Bethlehem University (Current
- Worked on structured programming projects using Java and Object-Oriented principles.
- Applied data structures and algorithmic thinking to solve complex problems and develop efficient solutions.
- Gained experience in teamwork, project planning, and task prioritization.
- Currently applying these skills on Codeforces challenges to enhance problem-solving speed and algorithmic thinking.

Skills

Java, Object-Oriented Programming, Data Structures & Algorithms, Problem Solving, Time & Task Management, Project Planning, Workflow Organization, Analytical Thinking, Teamwork, Prioritization

Tools

Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft PowerPoint, Microsoft Outlook
Canva (Currently learning), Adobe Express (Currently learning)

Languages

Arabic (Native), English (Fluent, written and spoken), Turkish (Basic conversational, reading comprehension; not fluent in writing)